Thank you for the invite on the call. I'm filing a short piece tonight, which will be published at 11:15. Just wanted to essentially run this by you to determine if I'm correct. Please correct the points below if need be. Also, I had one question at the end.

Basically, the facts are:

Already 25 million exempted under Obama.

"99.9 percent of women" will not be affected, a senior HHS official said, because it only applies to employers using a religious or moral exemption.

Under the new rule there is a

- 1.) Religious exemption: A religious affiliated non-profit employer, such as a church, school or charity.
- 2.) Moral exemption: Nonprofit or a (non-publicly traded) for profit entity with moral opposition or a for-

I wasn't clear on the third party insurer being a voluntary matter now.

Thanks.
